

FOUNTAIN PARK

WRITTEN AND PHOTOGRAPHED BY LIESL WALSH
VENICE GULF COAST LIVING MAGAZINE

There are many unique spots in our magnificent city that make us want to pause for a while and gaze at the beauty and peacefulness that abounds. We hope you stroll along some of these paths and discover the wonder of living in paradise.

~ Chris Francin, Publisher

Venice has the perfect place to stop and relax on Miami Avenue. At the corner of Ponce De Leon and Nokomis avenues stands an elegant cast iron fountain surrounded by shade trees. In 1986 the First National Bank of Venice donated a fountain which was replaced by then-mayor Merle Graser in 1995.

It is the perfect spot to sit on a bench and listen to the water cascade from the statue of Hebe, the goddess of youth. At night, watch the fountain pool lights change colors from blue to purple, red, white, and green.

Enjoy this destination located in Historic Downtown Venice.

For more information about Liesl Walsh Photography log on to lieslwalsh.com, and for museum quality prints log on to liesl-walsh.pixels.com. Liesl Walsh is a fine art photographer in Venice, Florida.