Enjoying the tastiest tacos, burritos, nachos, and salads is simple when you visit Urban Taco here in Venice. This fiesta-themed eatery provides guests with a unique experience, allowing them to create their own entrees or select from a custom menu of delicious house favorites. If you're thinking about where to go for lunch or dinner this week, Urban Taco is right around the corner, ready to offer you a fresh look at Mexican cuisine.

Brothers Peter and Douglas VanDerNoord partnered in 2014 with the goal of bringing simple, creative, and delicious cuisine to the neighborhood. This dynamic duo opened Urban Taco in 2020 and began offering a convenient build-your-own approach that has customers returning time and time again. Upon entering, guests are greeted by bright fiesta flair and encouraged by the dining wall's invitation to "Grab a Taco & Stay Awhile." Walk over to the digital menus and you'll quickly discover that the savory, spicy Mexican entrée options are endless.

Choose where you'd like to begin: Tacos, Burritos, Bowls, Salads, Quesadillas, or Nachos. Once you've made your initial choice, let your culinary skills shine by building your own or selecting from house favorites such as the Urban Tacos with slow-roasted pork or the Baja Fish Tacos topped with Pico de Gallo and zesty garlic cilantro sauce. Gather ideas from other house items such as the Urban Burrito, filled with rice, black beans, cheese, lettuce, and fresh guacamole, or the Mama Bowl, a generous helping of quinoa, roasted veggies, salsa, arugula, and feta.

When personalizing a meal, get ready to step outside the taco shell. Spruce up your plate with juicy proteins such as the Adobe Chicken, Barbacoa, Carne Asada, Shrimp, and Fish alongside varieties of fresh white or brown rice, pinto or black beans, and sautéed veggies. Fill your flour or corn tortilla with an added scoop of guacamole or cheese, then top it off with a flavorful dash of the Urban Crema, Mango Habanero, or Kickin' sauce. Pair any entrée with a side of chips and salsa, queso, beans, or rice and finish it all off with a quenching bottle of traditional Jarritos and dessert of sweet cinnamon churros.

Spice things up! Order online or stop in at Urban Taco this week for a fresh, flavorfully satisfying dining experience.
