Frank Williams and Kathy Kerrigan

Kathy Kerrigan, who runs Venice Mail & Print, takes great pride in providing above-and-beyond service to her customers and the community. She explains that in the immediate aftermath of Hurricane Ian when people had lost homes, suffered damage, and lost communication and power, Venice Mail & Print was up and running, with its doors open to provide help. Kathy says people began streaming in and found a shoulder to lean on and the help to connect to family, plus much-needed Federal and local services. Kathy wants people to know that it's that type of caring, committed service she and her business partner Frank Williams, who runs Island Mail & Print on Anna Maria Island, provide on a daily basis in all their business dealings.

Kathy enthusiastically shares about how so many customers who come in to make copies or ship a small article are surprised to learn of the many services and products available, from purchasing postage stamps, avoiding long lines at the post office during the holiday season, and gift wrapping, to custom crating for art, furniture, valuables, and more. Many Snowbirds use Mail & Print's services to ship items seasonally. Kathy loves to offer tips on ways to save costs when shipping. Additionally, Frank Williams has forty plus years' experience in fine art reproduction and transferring photos to canvas. Frank explains that they offer archival giclee reproductions of the finest museum-quality suitable for artist prints. Frank is excited to say that they will soon have a new 64" wide fine art printer, something that most artists will appreciate. Additionally, Frank shares that he can enhance any photo and transfer it to canvas, all at competitive pricing, and that he can also help you with your treasured vintage photos by restoring them digitally. And that's not all: Frank explains that he will also give pointers to help you take better photographs.

There's more to Venice Mail & Print than the name suggests. There is daily service between the two stores, so you can drop your photos off in Venice, have a Facetime consultation with Frank, and pick up the finished product a few days later. Both Kathy and Frank emphasize that they take no shortcuts because providing the highest quality service, products, and customer satisfaction are of the utmost importance to them. They have shipped everything from books to car bumpers, fine art, furniture, and plumbing fixtures. They like to call it a one-stop shop for many needs. Additionally, if you visit the store in Holmes Beach, they have an onsite art gallery for your viewing pleasure.
