variety of options for your furniture needs. Suzanne is a great problem solver who can give you great ideas if you have a dilemma or are unsure of the direction you want to go.

Hailing from Indiana, Karen has a positive, happy demeanor and is known for her attention to detail. After browsing and getting ideas, ask Karen for some help and she will be there with pen and paper in hand to take notes to be sure she understands exactly what you want. Karen will write down measurements and offer fabric samples and furniture finishes to take home. She is always happy to help.

Catherine, our newest salesperson, hails from New Jersey but has lived most of her adult life in Florida. She has an avid interest in design and color and frequently visits new model homes. Having just built a home herself, Catherine has first-hand knowledge of what a lot of our customers are experiencing. Catherine, like Suzanne and Karen, will help you with your project with a keen eye for color and design.

And lastly, meet Steve, our warehouse manager and delivery person, who hails from Indiana and has served our country as a Marine. With care and precision, Steve will deliver your furniture on time as promised.

We are fortunate to have these fine people on our staff and all of us at Rattan Wicker and Cane look forward to helping you with your furniture and accessory needs. Furniture buying can be fun, especially when you have creative, talented people who are here to serve you, so come in and relax!
