Susan Kelly, Owner

After journeying through Italy's film and TV scene, Susan settled in the U.S. in 2009 with a pursuit for reinvention. She quickly cultivated her love of hair and received her licensure at age 42. She acknowledges this as a testament to others that, "You never give up. Keep going until you find what you love."

The team not only brings a wealth of experience, but also of cultural diversity, with speakers of Polish, Spanish, and Italian on staff. Come in today and become DaVinci Hair Salon's next masterpiece.

Amanda Cattaneo

As a certified aesthetician and hairstylist, Amanda has harnessed the beauty benefits of both worlds. After a braided updo or curly creation, she can complete any look with skincare or hot wax treatments. Working alongside her mother, Susan, is a daily highlight, as is being a part of a team where, she says, "There's something for everyone!"

Dagmara Szostak

Passionate about quality hair and makeup, Dagmara graduated from cosmetology school in 1999, receiving her license in 2002. Although gifted at accomplishing every hair need, she finds the greatest fulfillment in working with brides for their weddings. "It is a gratifying experience to help women feel beautiful on the most important day of their lives."

Randall Silva

Drawing upon more than 40 years of experience, Randall is a dynamic stylist, skilled in all facets of the industry, who maintains a devoted clientele. Attending fashion events with his mother in Boston as a child sparked off his successful career. "I love hair and I get to do what I love!"

Emma Hope

Transforming luscious locks for over 11 years, the salon's newest member, Emma has added coloring, styling, and applying Keratin treatments to her repertoire of skills. "I've worked at other salons," she says, "but I like this one most. It feels like a family here."

Janine McClinton

Throughout her 37-year hairstyling career, Janine has learned to do it all; cuts, updos, blowouts, and everything in between. She previously opened up her own salon and flourished in the kind of fun, personable atmosphere she always desired. At DaVinci's, she continues doing exactly what she loves.

Sergio Billci

Stepping into a salon is second nature for Sergio. After receiving his license in Michigan, he opened his own salon, delivering stunning, new styles for men, women, and children of all ages. From razor and bob cuts, to perms, highlights, colors and more, Sergio's 20 years of experience will have your hair looking perfetto!

Michelle Decoste

The salon's newest member, Michelle is a professional stylist with over 30 years of experience who understands the importance of establishing trust and seamless communication with her clients. Inspired by her mother's haircare proficiency, Michelle has owned two salons in New Hampshire and now seeks to bring her sleek skillset to residents of Venice.
