St. Marco Boutique celebrates 40 years of business this October. Ruth Burchert began her vision of acquiring unique and timeless fashions for women in Venice and Sarasota in 1984. Renee Dees, Ruth's daughter, has ensured for the last 10 years that St. Marco is "the boutique" for interesting, eclectic, and classic apparel and accessories for generations. She says, "I know too well that there is no 'I' in 'team,' so with Donna Brennan and an amazing community of creative souls, we take great pride and effort in our customer service, attention to detail, and of course, our signature windows."

We are always thinking outside the box, from having ladies walk our runway to providing a fun, private after-hours shopping experience. Much consideration goes into acquiring and researching new and innovative clothing lines each season to keep St. Marco Boutique a one-of-a-kind shopping adventure. In addition to timeless fashion, we strive to create an artsy element.

While the Venice area grows exponentially, St. Marco Boutique masters the appeal to generations. With 2024 upon us, we hope to greet familiar faces while still welcoming all our new arrivals. Wishing everyone a happy, healthy, and prosperous New Year!
