Get to know DaVinci Hair Salon's lively crew of hair and makeup masters, each of whom brings a sharp, stylish edge to the art of hairstyling. Since 2014, this expanding team of seasoned haircare professionals continues to transform the tresses of discerning men and women who are seeking the utmost in quality. As new residential communities and the recently completed Sarasota Memorial Hospital develop close by, the DaVinci team excitedly prepares to welcome its latest neighbors and offer its knowledge, expertise, and individuality to exceed its patrons' haircare needs.

Each year, countless new customers become devoted DaVinci clients, returning for one satisfying experience after another. Now, it's your turn! Step into the holidays and beyond looking your best by freshening up with a new style.

Susan Kelly, Owner

After journeying through Italy's film and TV scene, Susan settled in the U.S. in 2009 with a pursuit for reinvention. She quickly cultivated her love of hair and received her licensure at age 42. She acknowledges this as a testament to others that, "You never give up. Keep going until you find what you love."

The team not only brings a wealth of experience, but also of cultural diversity, with speakers of Polish, Spanish, and Italian on staff. Come in today and become DaVinci Hair Salon's next masterpiece.

Janine

Throughout her 37-year hairstyling career, Janine has learned to do it all; cuts, updos, blowouts, and everything in between. She previously opened up her own salon and flourished in the kind of fun, personable atmosphere she always desired.

At DaVinci's, she continues doing exactly what she loves.

Randall

Drawing upon more than 40 years of experience, Randall is a dynamic stylist, skilled in all facets of the industry, who maintains a devoted clientele. Attending fashion events with his mother in Boston as a child sparked off his successful career. "I love hair and I get to do what I love!"

Deanna

In only 4 short years, Deanna has followed her passions within the industry. Releasing her inner artist as she transforms her clients through rainbow vivids and dimensional coloring, as well as fun and funky cutting techniques! She says, "I love embracing who I am, and that is a flame I strive to ignite in all my guests! Making guests feel like their best selves is the most rewarding part of this industry to me."

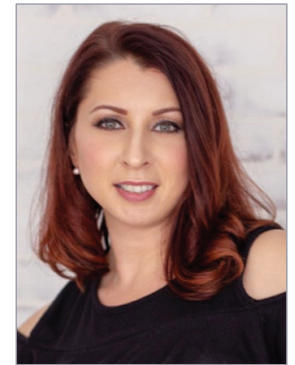

Sergio

Stepping into a salon is second nature for Sergio. After receiving his license in Michigan, he opened his own salon, delivering stunning, new styles for men, women, and children of all ages. From razor and bob cuts, to perms, highlights, colors and more, Sergio's 20 years of experience will have your hair looking perfetto!

Dagmara

Passionate about quality hair and makeup, Dagmara graduated from cosmetology school in 1999, receiving her license in 2002. Although gifted at accomplishing every hair need, she finds the greatest fulfillment in working with brides for their weddings. "It is a gratifying experience to help women feel beautiful on the most important day of their lives."

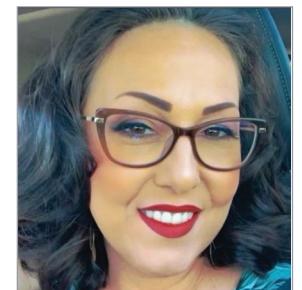

Glory

Dedicated to her craft for over 25 years, Glory's endless enthusiasm and dedication to hair styling has opened doors to many opportunities in the industry. She loves creating natural blondes, dimensional brunettes, and Balayage with cuts that embrace movement while preserving the health and integrity of the hair. Her expertise also includes styling brides on their big day. Glory's main goal is to create sophisticated and unique styles that make her clients feel and look amazing.

Cindy

A passionate stylist with extensive experience in hair cutting, coloring, event hair, and makeup, Cindy ensures that stepping into her chair will always be a positive experience, full of fun conversation and gorgeous beauty results!
